Description: Learn how Sample Cleaning Company plans residential cleaning in Raleigh, from discussing priorities to confirming the work before booking.

Cleaning planned around the work you need

Sample Cleaning Company provides recurring, deep and move-out cleaning in Raleigh.

Our booking process starts with a conversation about your home and priorities. We use those details to confirm the service, discuss any additional tasks and explain the quoted scope before you book.

If you aren't sure which service to choose, describe what needs attention. We'll clarify the difference between routine upkeep and a more detailed visit so you can decide.

Have a move-out checklist or a particular room you want to discuss? Include it with your inquiry. We'll confirm what can be included before scheduling.

Description: Request weekly or every-other-week house cleaning in Raleigh. Confirm your cleaning priorities, scope and availability before booking.

Make regular cleaning part of your schedule

Recurring cleaning is for homeowners who want ongoing help with upkeep. Choose weekly or every-other-week visits, subject to availability.

Before booking, we'll discuss your home's size, priorities and the tasks to include. Your confirmed scope explains what the visit covers. We bring supplies, and any optional work is agreed separately.

If your home needs more detailed attention before regular visits begin, tell us when you inquire. We can discuss whether a deep clean would better fit your initial needs.

Description: Plan a more detailed home clean in Raleigh. Share the areas needing attention and receive a quote with an agreed cleaning checklist.

Give the details their own cleaning plan

A deep clean offers more detailed attention than routine upkeep. The right scope depends on your home's condition and the areas you want addressed.

When requesting a quote, explain what needs attention and whether you want optional interior oven cleaning. We'll confirm the checklist and quote before booking so you can review exactly what is covered.

We bring cleaning supplies. Exterior window cleaning and hazardous cleanup are outside our services.

Discuss your deep clean

5. Move-out cleaning

Description: Request cleaning for an empty home in Raleigh before handover. Share your move date and any property checklist so we can confirm the scope.

Plan the clean before you hand over the keys

Moving involves enough decisions. An agreed cleaning scope helps you organize the final visit to your empty home.

Send your preferred date, property details and any landlord or property-manager cleaning checklist. We'll review the requested tasks, confirm what we can cover and quote before scheduling.

Interior oven cleaning can be discussed as an additional task. We bring supplies. Exterior window cleaning and hazardous cleanup are excluded.

Your landlord or property manager determines any deposit return; our cleaning service does not guarantee that outcome.

Three inquiry responses

New quote request

Thanks for contacting Sample Cleaning Company. Please send your location, approximate home size, desired service and preferred dates. If there are specific areas needing attention, include those too. We'll confirm the scope and availability before quoting.

Scope clarification

Thanks for those details. Before we quote, could you confirm whether you want interior oven cleaning included? It's an optional task, so we'll identify it separately in the proposed scope.

Move-out inquiry

Thanks for your move-out inquiry. Please send the property size, preferred cleaning date and any landlord or property-manager checklist. Let us know whether the home will be empty. We'll review the requested work and confirm the scope and availability.
